Fifth Appellate District

F042095      In re Cole F., a Minor

The jurisdictional and subsequent orders of the juvenile court are reversed. On remand, the juvenile court first is to insure that proper notice has been given under the ICWA. The juvenile court then is to determine whether any tribe has concluded that the children are eligible for membership in the tribe. Provided proper notice has been given as detained herein, and no tribe has concluded the children are eligible for membership, the juvenile court shall then reinstate its orders. Alternatively, the juvenile court shall proceed according to the dictates of the ICWA. Cornell, J.

We concur: Vartabedian, Acting P.J.; Harris, J.
